Who We Are

We are a firm of Solicitors based in Christchurch.

Mr Williams and Mr Thompson were previous owners of the firm and, as tradition has it in legal firms, we have retained their names and now run the firm as a limited liability partnership under the name of "Williams Thompson Solicitors LLP".

The firm is wholly owned by our four partners, all of whom work in and have invested in the business.

Including our partners, we have six qualified Solicitors, and twelve support staff, the majority of whom have been with the firm many years.

We are a long-established Christchurch firm – and by that we mean we can trace our roots back to 1836!

That does not mean we are not up-to-date. Far from it. We have invested significantly in the latest technology to ensure that we can support our clients with the benefit of some of the latest software systems available.

Our clients come from all walks of life and we have long relationships with many of them, some going back over generations. However, we are always happy to welcome new clients to the firm and hope that we will be able to build new long term relationships with them.

Whilst many of our clients live in Christchurch and the surrounding areas, we have others who come from across the country including London. In particular, our reputation in family law attracts clients from across the Bournemouth conurbation, the New Forest and wider afield.

Our pride is the quality of our Solicitors and staff and the quality of the work and client care we can provide.

Our Philosophy

No-one can be excellent in everything.

Recognising that, we concentrate in just three areas of law: Property, Wills & Probate and Family. It means we are experts in those three areas and can provide you with a first-class service.

It means our Solicitors and support staff have built up a detailed knowledge of their particular specialisation, and it is the quality of our Solicitors and staff that is our strength.

In each of our three areas of work, both the law and practice change frequently. Due to our specialisations, you can be confident that you will get the best, up-to-date advice. It also enables us to concentrate our investment on these three areas. As a result, we have some of the latest software and support programmes to enhance the services we provide.

If you ask us to act for you, your matter will be dealt with by a fully qualified Solicitor who, wherever possible, will see the matter through from start to finish with the support of their respective assistants. You will not find it passed to a series of para-legals which is a problem with many larger firms. The only exception to this is that with our commitment to training, we might ask our trainee to assist on occasion.

Also, please note that we do not pay (or receive) commissions. Accordingly, if you have been recommended to us, it is a genuine recommendation based on our reputation for good quality work (and not because of a payment being made, which unfortunately is now common in some areas of work).

Finally, we are a long established firm. We mention this only to distinguish ourselves from the many "here today, gone tomorrow" businesses that now proliferate on the internet and elsewhere.

If you use our services, we hope it will be the start of a long and mutually beneficial relationship.

Our Team

Our team has over 20 years of collective experience in delivering high quality work in all matters relating to residential conveyancing. Regardless of who works on your matter, they will be supervised by Stephen Bowden, Partner and Head of Property.

Stephen Bowden – Partner

Stephen is the head of our Property Department and has over 12 years' experience in conveyancing. Stephen is a highly respected property lawyer. His knowledge and practical approach has earned him a loyal client following. Both individuals and families come to him as solicitor when any property matters arise. Stephen is often recommended by local estate agents and he is first choice solicitor for many local business owners. Stephen also has a following of property developers who know they can rely on his thorough and practical approach.

Stephen obtained an LLB degree in Law from Brunel University in 1998 and then spent time in a multinational company before completing his legal practice course at Bournemouth University and qualified as a solicitor in 2008.

Amanda Bartlett - Solicitor

Amanda's expertise covers a wide range of property related work. Her friendly and professional approach to dealing with clients has resulted in her establishing a good reputation and loyal following of satisfied clients.

Having obtained an LLB honours degree in law and criminology, Amanda completed her legal practice course at the Guildford College of Law and qualified as a solicitor in 2010. Amanda specialises in residential conveyancing dealing with the buying and selling of flats and houses and is equally at home in dealing with commercial leases and all other property related work.
